New York / Berlin, May 13, 2015—artnet Auctions is pleased to announce that California Cool, our sale celebrating the West Coast’s established influence on the art world, is now live for bidding. The evocative work of West Coast artists is a product of their environmental and cultural surroundings, from the use of commercial graphics and surf culture as subject matter to a color palette that expresses the natural light and wide expanse of the region’s coastline. This auction features works by sought-after Contemporary artists, including David Hockney, Wayne Thiebaud, Joe Goode, Andy Warhol, Mel Ramos, John Baldessari, Ronald Davis, Ed Ruscha, Raymond Pettibon, and Sam Francis.
Auction Highlights

- Ed Ruscha, Street Meets Avenue, 2000. Lithograph in colors. Estimated at $5,000 to 7,000.

- Sam Francis, Bright Nothing, 1963. Lithograph in colors. Estimated at $4,000 to 6,000.

California Cool is live on artnet Auctions now through May 21, 2015, and is on view at artnet.com/auctions/california-cool-0515/.
